

Mockingbird Essay

California CCSS ELA Standards Alignment

| OBJECTIVES             | CODE ASSIGNMENTS          | HIGH CONFIDENCE    | GRADE BAND                          |
|------------------------|---------------------------|--------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 61 aligned · 5 not | 11 distinct standards | 01 med · 0 low | 9-10/11-12inferred from context |

Curated by gemini-1.5-flash via run_alignment.py.

Section 1: File Name

Naming Convention

Follow the file naming convention of:
Your Name | Period # | Assignment
Name

sections[0].objectives[0]

Note: The objective is purely logistical and procedural, focusing on file naming conventions for assignment submission rather than academic content standards.

The objective is purely logistical and procedural, focusing on file naming conventions for assignment submission rather than academic content standards.

Section 2: Essay Objectives

Essay Length

Your essay must be 500-1000 words and contain at least five paragraphs.

sections[1].objectives[0]

Note: The objective specifies logistical formatting requirements (a word count of 500-1000 words and a minimum of five paragraphs) rather than academic skills or standards related to reading comprehension or text analysis.

The objective specifies logistical formatting requirements (a word count of 500-1000 words and a minimum of five paragraphs) rather than academic skills or standards related to reading comprehension or text analysis.

Essay Elements

Include two hyperlinks and two images that are relevant information this essay.

sections[1].objectives[1]

CCRA.W.8

CCRA.W

categorized-standardsCaliforniaCA-ELA

Grade —

Research to Build and Present Knowledge

70 / 100
MEDIUM

Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, assess the credibility and accuracy of each source, and integrate the information while avoiding plagiarism.

WHY THIS MAPS

The objective requires students to locate and integrate digital sources (hyperlinks and images containing relevant information) into their essay, which aligns with gathering and integrating information from digital sources.

Essay Content

Include character names, locations, scenes, etc... in your text.

sections[1].objectives[2]

Note: None of the candidates align well with this objective. The objective focuses on the writing process (specifically including narrative elements like character names, locations, and scenes in an essay), whereas the candidate standards either address argumentative writing (WHST.9-10.1, WHST.11-12.1) or reading comprehension/analysis of existing texts (RL.4.3, RL.8.3, CCRA.R.6).

None of the candidates align well with this objective. The objective focuses on the writing process (specifically including narrative elements like character names, locations, and scenes in an essay), whereas the candidate standards either address argumentative writing (WHST.9-10.1, WHST.11-12.1) or reading comprehension/analysis of existing texts (RL.4.3, RL.8.3, CCRA.R.6).

Section 3: AI Evaluations

Subjective AI

Subjective AI Evaluations covering Depth of Analysis, Clarity and Coherence, Engagement and Originality, Use of Textual Evidence, and Emotional and Intellectual Impact.

sections[2].objectives[0]

Note: The objective focuses on evaluating AI-generated outputs across various subjective writing criteria (e.g., clarity, coherence, engagement, emotional impact). The candidate standards are strictly limited to citing textual evidence for reading comprehension in specific disciplines, which does not align with the core focus of evaluating AI performance or writing quality.

The objective focuses on evaluating AI-generated outputs across various subjective writing criteria (e.g., clarity, coherence, engagement, emotional impact). The candidate standards are strictly limited to citing textual evidence for reading comprehension in specific disciplines, which does not align with the core focus of evaluating AI performance or writing quality.

Objective AI

Objective: Spelling, Grammar and Syntax, Formatting, Organized Ideas into Paragraphs, and Length.

sections[2].objectives[1]

Note: None of the candidate standards align well with the objective. The candidates focus on maintaining a formal style/objective tone or varying syntax for rhetorical effect, whereas the objective targets basic writing conventions and mechanics (spelling, grammar, formatting, paragraph organization, and length).

None of the candidate standards align well with the objective. The candidates focus on maintaining a formal style/objective tone or varying syntax for rhetorical effect, whereas the objective targets basic writing conventions and mechanics (spelling, grammar, formatting, paragraph organization, and length).